

2007 Scholarships awards are announced

International President Jones is pleased to announce that the International Brotherhood of Boilermakers' Scholarship Committee has selected the winners of the scholarship awards for 2007. The following winners of the Canadian awards are a son or daughter of a member of the Union:

- $3,000 - Kayla Carr, daughter of James Carr, Lodge 73
$2,000 - International Brotherhood of Boilermakers & $1,000 - Canadian Federation of Labour
- $2,000 - Mitchell Hodgson, son of Richard Hodgson, Lodge 580
$1,000 - International Brotherhood of Boilermakers & $1,000 Canadian Federation of Labour
- $1,500 - Heather Cody, daughter of Bryan Cody, Lodge 359
- $1,500 - Justina Morris, daughter of Terrance Wood, Lodge 73
- $1,000 - Tina Garvey, daughter of David Garvey, Lodge 146
- $1,000 - Kaylin England, daughter of Barry England, Lodge 359
- $1,000 - Kathleen MacLennan, daughter of M. Gerard MacLennan, Lodge 73
- $1,000 - Hannah Cavicchi, daughter of Craig Cavicchi, Lodge 580
- $1,000 - Tyler Pettipas, son of Jerome Pettipas, Lodge 73
- $1,000 - Jennifer Mitchell, daughter of Joe Mitchell, Lodge 128

There were also scholarship award winners from the USA. In total, there were 148 applicants. In selecting these winners, the members of the Scholarship Committee were highly impressed with their excellent grades throughout high school, their many achievement awards, their participation in many extracurricular activities, and their well-written essays.

President Jones says that there are many applicants who are deserving of commendation and he wishes them all well.